Class Outline

Class 3 – Humanitarian Engineering

1. Announcements
   a.
2. Homework due today
   a. HW #2
3. New homework assigned
   a. HW #3 – due Tuesday, April 18

Class Activities

1. To the Walls!!
   a. In one sentence, describe what it means to be a Humanitarian Engineer.
   b. List three important qualities or qualifications necessary to be a successful Humanitarian Engineer.
   c. List what you feel are differences that distinguish a Global Engineer from a Humanitarian Engineer.
   d. Draw a picture illustrating how you relate to being a Humanitarian Engineer.
2. Divide into 3 groups of five each, including Simon and Dr. Nelson.
   a. Group 1
      i. Title: Global Engineers
         ii. Formation: The 5 people whose permanent residence is the farthest from Chan Shun Hall
         iii. Advocate: The Global Engineering Perspective
   b. Group 2
      i. Title: Humanitarian Engineers
         ii. Formation: The 5 people whose permanent residence is the closest to Chan Shun Hall
         iii. Advocate: The Humanitarian Engineering Perspective
   c. Group 3
      i. Title: Anti-Development Engineers
      ii. Formation: The rest of the class
      iii. Advocate: The Anti-Development perspective
3. Photo reaction